REAL SUMMER WEATHER.

FRIDAY STARTED IT FOR A REGULAR HOT DAY,

BUT CLOUDS COOLED IT OFF.

It Will Be Cooler Friday Night Unless All Signs Fall and the Atmosphere Is Dry and Pleasant.

It's not so warm.
Just think of the interior of a refrigerating chest, just recall how cold it was for a week last winter. Just read a book on polar travel and you will agree with the statement.

When Dr. Frankenstein arrived at his office and saw that the mercury had touched 84 degrees at 7 o'clock, he delved into the books and announced that a record had been broken. On no other June day since the Weather Bureau established an office here has the temperature been so high at that hour. But once has the mercury touched a higher point at 7 o'clock.

THE WEATHER CUTS SOME ICE WITH HIM.

That was during the hot spell in August of last year, when the thermometer started in doing business at 85.

Dr. Frankenstein thought that with 84 as a start the maximum temperature of Thursday might be exceeded, but at 8 o'clock the wind shifted to the west northwest and some clouds swept up from below the horizon, lashed drifts across the face of the sun, and interval, and broke the force of his rays.

The weather observer said this shift of wind and the clouds would prevent the mercury going very far up in the nineties, still be said there would be a fair article of heat in the afternoon.

At 10:30 there was another shift in the wind. It veered to the south again, but as the clouds were thick the observer did not believe the heat would quite equal that of Thursday.

Chicago, which is usually a blast furnace when compared with the Mound City was enjoying a cool breeze from off Lake Michigan and a temperature of 64, which was a drop in twenty-four hours from 80.

In New York it was 64 and in Washington the same, both cities being fanned by an east wind, salt-laden from the ocean.

Detroit, which is usually a hot city at 84, and at Lander, Wyo., there was a frost last night and a temperature of 40.

Dr. Frankenstein was asked what he had in store for St. Louisans and this is what he said:

"It will be a little cooler to-night and warm again to-morrow, but not as warm as it was Thursday. If the wind keeps on shifting, we may have a thunder storm this evening that will cause the mercury to fall a few degrees lower than no rain should come, but we will not have a downpour, and the temperatures, such as has occurred in other cities."

"What about those thunder storms you have?"

"Oh, please don't say anything," he said, holding up both hands. "I have apologies to offer, but no explanations to make. I am sorry, but I didn't know. They did not this city with a persistency that I never saw manifested by storms before. The weather was not as bad yesterday and the day before, except in St. Louis, Springfield, Ill., only 100 miles away, had a heavy downpour, and the temperatures in other parts of the Northwest were almost flooded and it rained heavily in the East."

"We will cause it to be cooler to-night."

"Is there a high barometer in the North-west?" the observer replied.

Fridays, the weather observer of the hot spell, Dr. Frankenstein says St. Louisans are to be congratulated—as they have been braced up by a cool spring and are in condition to stand the heat.

"And," he also said, "there is a certain satisfaction in the knowledge that it will be warmer this summer. One will not be able to say, 'O, wait till the hot weather comes.'

But one will remark in July or August, "well, it is warm in June."

Dr. Frankenstein says the reason is for hours while seated in his broad office high up off the Federal building. His optimism is refreshing, but his doctor has a thermometer which persists in recording a temperature when in instruments on the streets the mercury is near the century mark.

One of the first things to spoil is the dryness of the atmosphere. The humidity has kept below normal. It's the heat that causes moisture to escape the extremities. Out in the San Joaquin Valley, California, the mercury frequently dwells

Lynch street. He was revived without attendance of physicians and was sent home.

The hot weather has imposed an extra noon and midnight shift on the ambulances made fifty-five trips. Fifty patients were sent to the City Hospital and nine to the general hospitals.

There were ten reported cases of heat prostration, but only one proved to be genuine. Dr. T. G. Clegg, who was removed to the City Hospital. His condition is serious.

Arnold Wiszinski, 35 years old, 218 Miller street, employed at the Laclede Gas Works, at Second and Chestnut streets, was overcome by the heat Friday morning. Calm fronts, the mercury frequently dwells

Henry Huldenberger, 35 years old, 213 Marion street, was overcome by the heat at 7 o'clock Saturday morning. He was sent to the City Hospital. His condition is serious.

tured, and the Cubans are looking for a big movement of some sort. Gen. Gomez is concentrating his forces in Havana province, and will probably make a demonstration near Havana.

Gen. Weyler has 10,000 men, with 1,600 Or-tizales, he reported to have arrived in Melilla, Havana province. It is known that the rebels are marching through Matanzas seven days ago.

Gen. Gomez has called a council of war, which will be held in a day or two, when he will discuss his plan to the officers.

Gen. Weyler intends to leave Havana for the country next week. Within the last week there were no signs of disturbance or signs of activity. Yesterday another expedition landed in Havana province, this time only 1,000 men from the Cuban divisional troops.

This is the second expedition landed in Havana province during the present month.

Admirals from Puerto Principe state that the rebels are active in that province.
Several skirmishes between insurgents and Spanish troops resulted in the loss of 100 men during the last week. A Spanish column 800 strong, under Col. Beyter, was attacked while marching to Santa Clara, and were repulsed. Col. Beyter was badly wounded and 23 Spanish soldiers were killed.

The rebel loss is not known.

AT THE CITY HOSPITAL.

Dr. Sutter Says Palm Leaf Fans and Lemons Would Help.

The extreme heat has caused much suffering among inmates of the Temporary City Hospital.

Now there was a building so ill adapted to the comfort of its inmates during a heated summer as the old concert structure now serving as a hospital.

The rooms are small with low ceilings,
the windows are small after the architecture of the house for many years ago, and the whole place has a sultry atmosphere.

A Post-Dispatch reporter went through the hospital in company with Dr.
and wife, who are suffering the effects of the hot weather. Not a breath of air was stirring either in the corridors or sick wards. The adjoining room is a large one, Second street, and runs North and South. But one wing, and that on its narrow end, extended further than the other. The addition,
on the second and third floors, to all other parts of the structure, seemed almost suffocated by the heat.

Fortunately the hospital is not crowded,
and every disposition of a patient can be made to their comfort.

The doctors are there, much better prepared to care for the sick now, than they were during the heated terms of last summer. All the patients that have not moved, the building is not so crowded, and the hospital staff of doctors and nurses is enlarged, and better understand their surroundings.

So far this season, there have been but three cases of fever and ague.

Dr. Sutter says that if he were asked by some charitable people what they could best do for the comfort of the sick, he would suggest that they palm leaf fans. The hospital is supplied and an infant often has to do duty at half a dozen or more. The children should contribute a donation of lemons. The sick in the hot weather are greatly relieved by lemonade and other citrus drinks.

TIRED OF THEIR BARGAIN.

George Atkinson and His Wife Wanted
a Divorce in Vain.

Judge Spencer Friday morning refused to grant a decree of divorce to George Atkinson, who was anxious to be separated from his wife, Mamie Atkinson, to whom he was married March 11 of this year.

The cause of the suit that has come up in the Circuit Court for some time, Atkinson says, in his petition that immediately followed his application, he had agreed to attend to her household duties, saying she had been forced to marry him,

and that he had made her unhappy and unpleasant for as possible. She made him cook his own meals, and refused to eat the house food. This, she said, if he had not married her, he would do so, and she finally said she would leave him, as she concluded he could do much better as a woman of the town.

Accompanying the petition was a voluntary statement from the wife, in which she said she had agreed to the compromise conditions for desertion, as the statute required a year to elapse.

As to the other conditions, she said that the two months Atkinson lived with the woman he had not had time to give her a fair trial, and hence he could not lead her to reformation. So he refused to grant the decree asked for.

PUT UP A PROTEST AND $100.

Frank Koers Complains of the Delmar Avenue Improvement.

The Board of Public Improvements gave a hearing Friday on forty-two petitions and motions for street and alley improvements in various parts of the city. Many protests were filed. They were referred to the Committee on Street Improvement, which will report at the next meeting.

Frank Koers of 3601 Delmar avenue filed a protest against the improvement bid letter for the lower responsible bidder.

The ordinance provides for letting it to the lowest responsible bidder under a deposit of $100,000, to be designated by the Assembly.

The clause reads: "The clause reads:
The Board of Public Improvements
shall propose a canvas of all the accepted bids, under the several lettings, and submit the same with best service to the Assembly, who shall then designate by number the letter best serving which in their opinion will best serve the public interest."

The clause reads: "The clause reads:
The Board of Public Improvements
shall then reject all bids under the determine which is most significant. It reads:

"In case the city leases electric or gas plants, electricity or gas shall be furnished to private consumers for light, heat or power, and the same may be established from time to time by ordinance in accordance with the recommendation of the Comptroller."

Comptroller Davis says the purpose is to force the Assembly to grapple with the municipal ownership question and settle it one way or the other.

The Weather Made Him Swear.

Had he got one of those Men's Crash
Suits at $1.50 this could have been avoided.

Better grades up to $4.50. Globe, Seven-tenth and Franklin avenue.

STUFFED CITY PAY ROLLS.

As soon as Ziegelnhein said to the Street Commissioner, "The Central Committee recommends each one of him a good man, and then you put him to work," the Post-Dispatch advised the public to get ready for stuffed pay rolls.

It appears that the Street Commissioner has not obeyed the Mayor's orders, and that, in order to make room for the "good men" of the Central Committee, the gang has found it necessary to take the appointing power out of his hands. This was first attempted in the Utz bill, which, being largely a matter of plain figures indicating its purpose to make new holes for new pegs, was exposed and had to be abandoned.

Then came the Wittenberg bill, carrying nearly the same amount in appropriation, but not specific in its salary list. This bill gives Division Superintendents a free hand in the employment of "day laborers," and authorizes them to make out their own pay rolls and certify to the Superintendent's office, such certification to be final and conclusive as to the employment. No matter about the work.

Stuffing the pay rolls of the Street Department will begin the day the Wittenberg bill becomes operative. Ziegelnhein knows it. The Street Commissioner knows it. Everybody knows it.

GENERAL BUCKNER SMOKES.
Gen. Simon Bolivar Buckner has been to Chicago with his corncock pipe. And, between whiffs, he has declared that the election in Kentucky will go far toward bringing the separated elements of the Democratic party together.

The General admits that it is useless to expect the "silver men" to ask for the privilege of returning to the fold. "And we," said he, referring to the Wall Street Democrats, "will nominate a straight ticket of our own and keep up the fight until the end." Which is all the explanation the General gives as to how this campaign in Kentucky is to get the silver Democrats and the Wall Street Democrats together.

One would infer from this that the General is getting too old to talk politics. But he rambles even more. The silver Democrats are getting tired of associating with the Populists, "says he. But a few lines further on he adds: "The silver people came out for the Chicago platform and Bryan and denounced the Indianapolis platform, but this was more the work of the Populists than of the silver Democrats." In other words, while the silver Democrats are affirming the creed and endorsing the candidate of their party they are allowing the Populists to run their conventions and make their platform. Very properly, the corncock pipe went out at this point.

One must be remembered, was the Indianapolis candidate for Vice-President last year on the Hanna side—show ticket, polled about 130,000 votes out of nearly 14,000,000.

NOTES ON THE HEAT.

The Weather Bureau is being roundly denounced because the promised thunder-storm that was to cool the city has not yet arrived. But the people should not lose courage. The storm will probably arrive a little late, and when it does it is to be hoped that it will not make up in violence for its tardiness in arriving. Indiana, Illinois, Ohio and other States have been mercifully shielded off by thunderstorms, and the effect is likely to be felt here soon in a decided lowering of the temperature.

This is the time to use plenty of cold water externally. It is wonderful how much good a thorough sprinkling all around the walks and yards outside the house does. And where there are children the bedrooms ought to be bare of carpet, and before retiring for the night the floors should either be well sprinkled or mopped with cold water. This is perfectly safe on hot nights and will result in lowering the temperature a few degrees. Two or three degrees makes a great difference when the thermometer is in the nineties.

The basement is the coolest part of the house, and the poor who live in basements are better off in a hot spell than people living in upstairs flats or hotels. This is a redeeming feature of basement rooms not usually considered.

The milk dealers ought to make unusual efforts now to give their customers good milk—milk that has not been allowed to begin to turn for want of plenty of ice around it. In this way the milk dealers in their power to save the lives of many helpless infants.

Keep a cheerful spirit. It is a wonderful aid in keeping cool body.

"MISSIONARY" WORK IN HAWAII.

When Queen Lilioukalani, discussing the Treaty of Hawaiian annexation, said, "Fifteen hundred people are giving away my country," she expressed an exact and compact truth.

The United States Government is dealing in Hawaii with a small minority, which obtained possession of the government of the islands in a way contrary to all American ideas, and, in so dealing, recognizes and justifies the usurpation of that minority against the rights and wishes of the vast majority of Hawaiians.

And the shame of it is that these "team hundred people" are in large part missionaries and descendants of missionaries who have basely betrayed a trust that was acquired through their religious ministrations and through the confidence of the natives growing out of this sacred relation. A greater confidence game has never been played in the world than that of the missionaries and the missionary children upon the innocent and confiding Kanakas of the Hawaiian isles.

The trust of the natives and the power it placed in the hands of those upon whom it was unworthily bestowed, was first used to despoil the Hawaiians, then to overthrow their native government and erect a usurpation in its stead. And now the robbery is to be consummated by a sale of the country to a foreign power upon terms that will make the missionary element the ruling class and forever relegate the natives to conditions of political serfdom.

If the Dingby bill is to "wipe out whole manufacturing towns" in France, the French will not be long in finding a way to a sale of the country to a foreign power upon terms that will make the missionary element the ruling class and forever relegate the natives to conditions of political serfdom.

Every refusal of the Senate to investigate the charges in connection with sugar adds to the suspicion with which certain members of the body are regarded.

The St. Louis platform did not declare for the annexation of Hawaii, but that is of little consequence. When Eastern bondholders and speculators are to be served, neither platform nor constitutions can stand in the way.

The theory that strawberries cause June suicides may have something in it this year. So many people have not the money to buy them that melancholy naturally sets in and the culmination is self-destruction.

Dr. D. T. Jenkins of Thurman, O., who has been in active practice thirty-eight years, has officiated at 2,123 births. He estimates that he has traveled 300,000 miles on horseback, using one horse for fifteen years, during which time he rode 125,000 miles.

Sir Henry Irving's reading of "Tenby's Becket" within the year past, the great archbishop was murdered seven centuries ago in Canterbury Cathedral, was an impressive incident of the recent festivities arranged to raise a fund for the preservation of the venerable pile.

Prince Max of Saxony, who became a Roman Catholic priest, has been appointed a curate in the Whitechapel district in London. The Queen recently received him, which gives rise to the extraordinary surprise of a German Protestant paper that the Prince-prince has been commissioned by the Church of Rome to convert her majesty the Princess Beatrice.

Mr. Mahala Thompson of St. George, Me., would be worth thousands of dollars to some vendor of patent hair renewer if only she had been so foreseeing as to use such articles. Many of them now admit that they knew nothing of how the law had been abused by Roosevelt and Cleveland, a political confession, indeed, for men to make who assume to direct public opinion.

The record of Roosevelt's usurpations is written in the law and his lawless administration of it, and even he runs may be taken.

QUATRAIN.

ORNAMENT WILL MEET TYPHOON II.

ST. LOUIS DERBY WILL BE A SENSATIONAL EVENT.

CHAMPION STAKES SATURDAY.

Saturday and Sunday Will Be Great Days for the Local Wheelmen and Amateur Athletes.

Horsemen at the Fair Grounds are beginning to discuss the great St. Louis Derby, which is to be run Saturday, June 27, just eight days off. Most of the men who are eligible or will make up the field have started in one or more stakes race, consequently a good line can be had upon everything in the race. The Derby route is a mile and a half, and it is one of the few derbies in which the distance has not been set from a mile and a half to a mile and a quarter.

The St. Louis Derby is probably the most valuable stake to be run in the country this year, and the $10,000 will have the effect of bringing the greatest 3-year-olds to the starting post.

There are some who believe Ornament is a better colt than Cahn's great Typhoon II., despite the beating the latter gave him in the first race. Ornament has been swerving the stakes at Latonia, and, after winning the Derby, will start for the next rich stakes, the Hinsdale, Thursday, and won't from Bonneerges.

Of course the expected battle royal between Ornament and Typhoon II. will draw into insignificance everything in the race, but there are many people who think McGuffey's horse is the best. No one, however, thinks so hardy than does the redoubtable "Umbrella Bill," himself, the owner of Ornament. He has not given $1,000 for the horse, but will not let him until after the running of the St. Louis Derby. Bonneerges has some other valuable stakes engagements, and the owner of Ornament thinks he should win some of them.

The meeting between Ornament and Typhoon II. will be a great success, drawing enough to crowd the stands, but when these horses meet in the classic Derby at a mile and a half, it is to be expected that there should be a much greater crowd than can be accommodated. It will be the typical St. Louis Derby.

An interesting race is sure to result from the running of the St. Louis Stake, for 2-year-olds, worth $2,000, at the Fair Grounds Saturday, and one of the largest crowds ever seen at the track will be there to see the sport. Among the starters will probably be Elithorn, Trombones and Good Friend, 118 pounds each; Cahn and Lida, 155 pounds each; and Old Chum, Hobbie Duka, each with 133 pounds. There may be one or two others sent to the gate. The distance is five and one-half furlongs.

D. C. Collins of Nashville, who was accidentally killed in Easton, where he had purchased Dr. Clegg's Marietta and some other horses from Gil Curry had his money. The somber news came to the track who knew Emsley well say they do not believe his story of innocence. Collins has a couple of horses at the track, and no account, and have not yet started at the meeting.

Barney Schreiber, who always stands to win heavily on his horses, is said to be by far the favorite to win the St. Louis Derby. He has had bad luck with his horses, and in packing them he is said to be out of luck. The following Monday, June 23, at the Philadelphia base ball park, he will go through the contract. The winner will get $1,000.

The German clubs in New York have abandoned boxing exhibitions, and most of them are going out of the business. Prize fighting is now as dead as the metropolis itself. That is the cause.

The Anthony-Lawler fight in San Francisco Thursday night ended in a ten-round draw. Eddie Lawler won the last round.

The twelve-round fight at Hastings Thursday night between Nick Butler of California and Jimmy Ryan of Australia, middleweights, was a draw because both men were at the end of their strength.

According to the agreement, the Californian easily showed himself the better.

Mr. Becker, the old Louisville star pianist, has been offered the management of the Springfield (O.) base ball team. Arlie Latham refused the berth. Becker is now managing the team, and will remain in Springfield until 1897.

Dan McPhee, an American who has sold great success in America, France, Italy, Austria and Russia, and then selling them, dropped dead of apoplexy on the Vienna street just before the time when he was leading in his horse. Years ago he was well known on all the half-mile tracks of the Northern and Canadian circuits.

EDEN COLLEGE EXERCISES.

Fourteen Graduates From the German Theological Seminary.

The annual commencement exercises of Eden College, the theological seminary of the German Evangelical Synod of North America, were held Thursday at the college, Hunt avenue and St. Charles Rock road.

Twenty-four students graduated and given diplomas:

The invocation was pronounced by the Rev. Dr. Schaefer, president of the seminary. The Rev. G. Goebel of St. Charles Mo. read the scripture lesson, and the address before the Board of Directors was made by the Rev. F. L. M. DeMeyer.

The benediction was delivered by G. Bode, the class president. The salutatorian was A. Reusch.

BIERCE MUST APOLOGIZE.

Court-Martial Finds Him Guilty of Using Provoking Language.

The verdict by the court-martial in the case of Private F. E. Bierce of Co. G, First Regiment, N. G. M., is that he must apologize to the Colonel in command of the regiment before next Thursday night.

The trial was adjourned until the signature of Col. Edwin Badorf.

With Private Bierce found guilty is the violation of the twenty-fifth article of war, in using provoking language to a superior officer.

It was testified that when Second Lieutenant

E. E. Bobs, Co. A, addressed Bierce, the private answered that he (Bierce) was in no hurry, and that nobody could make him hurry.

The necessary committee was appointed to draw up a report, and the court-martial and constitution and law officers will be elected and permanent organization effected.

Thursday evening, July 1, when the next meeting of the regimental officers, the movement says it is not their object to antagonize the Associated Cycle Clubs, but to foster the sport, including racing, and to have more meetings during the summer months.

All the local crack bicyclists have left town with but few exceptions, and they should be heard of in the races at Kansas City, Indianapolis, and elsewhere.

Special Announcement.

John H. Woodbury's special New York surgeon will be at his Chicago office, 163 State st., cor. Monroe, July 5th, for one week, to perform operations for changing and correcting facial irregularities and deformities of the face and body of every nature. Appointments for this special work must be made at once.

Every one can be good-looking now, if you don't like your face it can be changed very easily. Operations are painless. There is hardly a face that cannot be improved. It is no longer necessary to go through life with the face and features nature gave you.

If you don't like your nose it can be changed to suit you, and if your ears, mouth or other features are not satisfactory, they too can be improved. In short, there is no blemish, mark or deformity in, or under the skin that cannot be painlessly and permanently eradicated. The place where these valuable improvements upon nature are performed is at the John H. Woodbury Dermatological Institute, 163 State street, Chicago.

Dermatologist Woodbury has had over twelve years' successful experience in curing skin diseases and eradicating facial blemishes.

At the main establishment and at each branch there is a fine static electric machine. Treatments from these machines are very beneficial in cases of rheumatism, neuralgia, stiffness and soreness and nervous disease. There is no shock or disrobing.

John H. Woodbury also manufactures Woodbury's Facial Soap, Facial Cream, Facial Powder, Skin Salve, etc. His twenty years' experience treating the skin and complexion gives him a practical knowledge of the requirements necessary to obtain or protect a good complexion, and his grand toilet combination should be on every toilet table of everyone who values these marks of beauty. For 20 cents we will mail you a sample of each of these articles (sufficient for two weeks' use), and an illustrated book on Dermatology, and how to improve the Skin, Scalp and Complexion. John H. Woodbury Dermatological Institute, 163 State street, corner Monroe, Chicago, Ill.

PAID UP IN A HURRY.

Judge Spencer of St. Joseph Greeted by a St. Louis Constable.

Judge O. M. Spencer of St. Joseph, General Solicitor for the Burlington Railroad, arrived in St. Louis Thursday and registered at the Southern Hotel. He had hardy made himself comfortable in his room when a constable served him with process in a suit brought by J. Revitky, a ladies' tailor to 2300 Oliver street. The amount claimed was for a dress made for Mrs. Spencer which she found unsatisfactory and sent back, refusing to pay costs.

Judge Spencer decided that the easiest way out of the suit was to pay the bill then and there. The constable, Revitky, says he expected Mrs. Spencer to arrive in St. Louis with her husband, and the plan in that case was to attach her trunks.

The Summer Resorts of Michigan are quickly and easily reached via the Wabash.

MACADAM BIDS BELOW COST.

Under the Wittenberg Bill the Dishonest Methods of the Old Macadam Ring Will Be Revived.

The harvest of corruption, predicted as a result of the Wittenberg bill, is already in sight.

Before the bill had passed the Council contractors got ready to profit by the rotten regime.

June 8 bids were opened by the Board of Public Improvements for furnishing macadam and gravel for street repairs for the ensuing twelve months.

Macadam rings were the lowest since the days of the macadam ring.

In the office of Street Commissioner Miller, when the bids were opened, Contractor Edward Prendergast brought his fist down with a mighty whack and shouted:

"There is something wrong here. Macadam cannot be taken out of the quarries for prices at which some of the bidders offer to deliver it on the streets. They are going to do the work below cost."

There was a chorus of approbation from the contractors gathered about.

When contractors offered city contracts at unprofitable figures it is a sure sign that they see their way clear to beat the game some way.

In the days of the macadam ring it used to be done in a simple but effective manner. Inspectors were furnished with tickets. Inspectors would load on macadam or gravel. The driver was supposed to receive one every time he delivered a load, and always receive one. Often he received two, and sometimes three for one.

A contractor who had things fixed so that he could get as many tickets as he liked often would make his bid low because the tickets were redeemable at the office of the City Treasurer.

This is the Upton-Wittenberg legislation.

The contractors saw that the present efficient force of inspectors would be replaced by a horde of push politicians, and were either to be well satisfied or to be well guarded through the taxpayers' money would be removed.

This was shown plainly enough to the public by the conduct of the General Superintendent of Repairs. This leaves the inspectors without direct oversight. The system of checks will not be able to stand. The contractor will have things all their own way. The corruption in the department will only be limited by the greed of the contractors.

There are twelve macadam districts. Contracts are let for each one separately. The price of macadam per cubic foot is

For the first district the lowest bid last year was $3.58 a square of 100 cubic feet, made by G. Eyerman, Jr. The lowest this year was $3.25. For the second district the same district Zeller bid $3.92 last year.

For the Second District the lowest bid last year was $3.50. The same district the St. Louis Quarry and Construction Co. got the contract for $3.75. The same company got the Third District for $3.50. The same district the Fuchs American Construction Co. last year. The St. Louis Company did not bid on these districts last year.

It did bid on the Fourth District, and got the contract at $3.75. This year it got it again, bidding $3.25.
